

A very special guest is coming to Stones Worth Stepping!

Dr. Mark McCarthy is making a trip to Omaha to provide assistance to our children in need. He will be providing nutritional consultation to identify potential biochemical imbalances that may be affecting their performance.

Friday July 31, 2009 7pm-8:30pm

Presentation given by Dr. Mark to describe his clinical treatment approaches with children with cognitive and behavioral challenges.

Location to be announced.

August 1 & 2, 2009

Dr. Mark is available for appointments. Sessions will be 1 hour. An out-of-pocket fee of $495 will be required prior to the first visit. This fee also includes two months of supportive email consultations. Follow-ups are $295, and include the two month email consults. Payment by check or credit card will be accepted.

See Emily Worth for appointment availability.
