Parent Resource, Information and Support Meetings

For Families of Children, Young Adults and Adults with Developmental Disabilities

Nurturing Healthy Sexual Development

Kathleen Feller, Associate Vice President of Early Childhood Programs, Nebraska Children and Families Foundation will be in town to offer training for parents and professionals. You will learn to:

<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Identify normal sexual behaviors of your children	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Respond to your child's questions about sexuality
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Respond to your child's sexual interactions	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Identify and report suspected child abuse

This training also recognizes that a crucial component of nurturing healthy sexual development is protecting children from sexual abuse. The training is for parents of children of all ages. It is never too early to begin talking.
