For people with physical, mental or emotional disabilities, health issues are only the beginning of the concerns that must be understood and addressed. Preparing for a secure financial future will make a tremendous difference in your lifestyle – now and when you can no longer care for your loved one.

Please join us for an educational event entitled,

“Strategies for Life Care Planning”

Presented by Dan Kline, MBA

Tuesday, May 18th

Light refreshments will be served.

Dan Kline has been active in the Special Needs community for the past 27 years. He is active with Special Olympics both as a coach, volunteer, and a parent. He is a Financial Advisor with Continuum Financial, a general agency of the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company (MassMutual) and has completed The SpecialCareSM program offered by The American College in Bryn Mawr, PA, exclusively for MassMutual Financial Professionals.

The SpecialCareSM program provides access to information, specialists, and financial products and services that can help improve the quality of life for people with disabilities and special needs. The program’s holistic approach involves a disabled person’s network of advisors in the development of a life care plan that can help the disabled person maintain the lifestyle that he or she needs.
