

Winter ASD Acting Classes

Every Saturday Jan. 8 - Feb. 26

At The Rose Theater, 2001 Farnam Street

Autism Action Partnership and The Rose Theater are offering children and teens with Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD) an unique theatrical experience that promotes creativity, confidence, and self-esteem. Professional actor/educators from The Rose Theater will use team exercises, game playing and interactive storytelling to introduce your child to the world of theater.

Tuition:
$30 per ASD student

To register for these classes, please contact Josh Kiepeke at joshk@rosetheater.org or 502-4617. A special registration form is required. Ask us about scholarships for the siblings of ASD students, as they may qualify to take a Saturday morning class for free.

Help Wanted:

Are you a teen interested in helping with these classes? Teen volunteers are needed. Please contact Michael Harrelson at 502-4634 to inquire.

Class #1: Animals & Pets

Grades 1-3

10:30-11:30 am

Students will use their bodies, voices, and imaginations to act out their favorite animals and pets. On the last day of class, parents and friends can come watch our virtual zoo in action!

Instructors: Sue Gillespie Booton & Staff

Class #2: Charlie & The Chocolate Factory

Grades 7-10

11:45-12:45 pm

For the first time ever, this class will be offered in back-to-back sessions, from January to May. Students will learn script analysis, movement, characterization, and a professional approach to rehearsal. Next, we will memorize lines and add costumes. A final 15-20 minute performance will be presented on the main stage in May.

Instructors: Sue Gillespie Booton & Staff.
